

Homework:

Choose a room in your house.

Record 5 qualitative observations

Record 5 quantitative observations

write or type your observations on a separate piece of paper

Do not put them in categories, scatter the observations like the exercise we did in class.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for students to write or type their observations. The box is horizontally oriented and occupies a significant portion of the lower half of the page.